Saturday July 13, 2013 Fun time in Lancaster County

This will be a fun and unique day. We will start the day at what is supposed to be the best food in Lancaster County for lunch at Diener's Country Restaurant. After lunch we will visit the Village of Dutch Delights. While there, you can go next door to visit the Dutch Haven where Shoo-Fly pies are said to be invented and get a sample if you wish. You can also visit the fun store known as The Outhouse. As far as Lancaster attractions go, this is one of the area's most unusual attractions. It's a country store with a twist, a twist of Family Friendly Dutch humor. It's been described as a fun house and a family-friendly place to shop for Fun and Gifts and have a good time. Around every corner of this "colorful" place you'll find dozens of wacky attractions that will make you laugh. Lots of fun, interesting and unique items are for sale.

Before heading home, we will give you a couple of hours at the Rockvale Square Outlets. We will leave Lancaster at 4:00PM to return back. Depart Astro Shopping Center 8:45AM. Depart Fairfax S./C 9:15AM. cost: $70 includes transp, lunch buffet

Sunday, Sept. 8, 2013 - Arthur Avenue Bronx's Italian Festival Ferragosto

This isn't your average Italian street fair - it is not filled with a lot of outside vendors that come in, setup shop for the day and then disappear into the night. This event is something much more personal. This is a true display of Italian pride; and a true display of community and camaraderie that you seldom see or feel at a street fair in a city of this size. The majority of the "street" vendors at this event were actually neighborhood businesses. The Arthur Avenue Retail Market - a kind of covered Italian bazaar that brings together under one roof all the shopping also found on nearby streets, from sausage makers to bread bakers, cafe's to florists. The variety is truly staggering - all told some nine restaurants, five pastry shops, four butchers, two pasta-makers, six bread stores, three pork stores, five gourmet delicatessens, two fish markets, three gourmet coffee shops and one gourmet Italian wind shop - to list only the food category. And then there are the gift and house ware shops. Spend the day on your own... you could even walk down to the Bronx Zoo (additional fee) if you choose.
